

2010 Asian and Pacific Islander American Heritage Month Calendar of Events

Event Name/description	Contact Info	Date/Time/Location
Mayor's Asian and Pacific Islander American Heritage Month Celebration featuring Congressman Mike Honda as the keynote speaker, the Mayor's Community Service Awards, cultural performances, and light Asian fare! Free and open to the public.	Mable Kong Mable.Kong@dc.gov (202) 727-3120	Tuesday, May 18 th 7:00pm MLK Jr. Memorial Library 901 G Street, NW
OAPIA "Community Day 2010" – receive in-person services by many local providers. Free and open to the public.	Elliot Lee Elliot.Lee@dc.gov (202) 727-3120	Saturday, May 15 th 11:00am - 3pm MLK Jr. Memorial Library 901 G Street, NW
DC Shorts, Fiesta Asia, the Historical Society of DC and OAPIA present a screening of short films! Free and open to the public.	Elliot Lee Elliot.Lee@dc.gov (202) 727-3120	Saturday, May 8 th 12:00pm Historical Society of DC 801 K Street, NW
Asian Pacific American Heritage Arts & Crafts Festival - A day of arts-and-crafts demonstrations featuring Laotian knot tying, Indian rangoli designs, Korean calligraphy, Mongolian watercolor and much more.	Smithsonian Institution (202) 633-5330 http://www.asianpacificheritage.gov/index.html	Friday, May 7 th 10:00am-3:30pm Natural History Museum 600 Maryland Ave., Suite 1005 Washington, DC 20024
Fiesta Asia @ Pangaea Festival Frederick	Asia Heritage Foundation info@asiaheritagefoundation.org (202)470-0899	Saturday, May 8 th 12:00pm-5:00pm 121 North Bentz Street Frederick, MD 21701
2010 National Asian Heritage Festival - featuring cultural performances by children of all ages and interactive activities for the whole family. You'll have the opportunity to learn different dances together	Asia Heritage Foundation info@asiaheritagefoundation.org (202)470-0899	Sunday, May 9 th 1:00pm-3:00pm Lion Tiger Hill Stage National Zoo 3001 Connecticut Ave. NW Washington, DC 20008
Film - There will be a screening of "The Patsy Mink Story: Ahead	Library of Congress (http://www.asianpacificheritage.gov/index.html)	Friday, May 14 th of the Majority,” a documentary film by Kimberlee Bassford about the first U.S. Congresswoman from Hawaii.		Library of Congress

Celebrate Asian Pacific American Heritage Month with hands-on activities inspired by postage stamps. Try out surfer slang and learn about the life of Duke Kahanamoku, make a modern sculpture inspired by the East-West artwork of Isamu Noguchi, and more!	Smithsonian Institution (202) 633-5330 http://www.asianpacificheritage.gov/index.html	Saturday, May 15th 11:00am-3:00pm Postal Museum 600 Maryland Ave., Suite 1005 Washington, DC 20024
National APA Heritage Month Children’s Book Tour - Author: Pooja Makhijani	OCA National (202) 223-5500 www.ocanational.org	Saturday, May 15th MLK Jr. Memorial Library 901 G St. NW, Washington DC
Fiesta Asia Street Party - Come join us for a chic Fiesta Asia Street Party from 10am-5pm in Downtown Silver Spring! Enjoy food, dance music, performances, games, crafts & culture all on one street!	Asia Heritage Foundation fiestaasia@gmail.com	Sunday, May 16th 10:00am-5:00pm 901 Ellsworth Drive Silver Spring, MD
APALA DAY @ UNION STATION/CAPITOL HILL: EXPLORING OUR ASIAN PACIFIC AMERICAN LABOR HERITAGE - the APALA DC Chapter plans to hold an event to celebrating these achievements as well as some of the struggle APA workers are faced with.	Asian Pacific American Labor Association apala_dc@yahoo.com	Wednesday, May 19, 2010 12:30P – 1:30P American Federation of Teachers 4 th Floor Conference Room 555 New Jersey Ave, NW Washington, DC 20001
Fiesta Asia Street Fair - happenings include outdoor craft exhibits, live performances, food and open market vendors, interactive displays, martial arts demonstration, talent show, cooking demo, flash mob dancing and many more!	Asia Heritage Foundation fiestaasia@gmail.com	Saturday, May 22nd 10:00am-7:00pm Pennsylvania Avenue NW, between 3rd & 6th St Washington, DC
Special Exhibition Tour: In the Realm of the Buddha - Join a docent-led tour of this special exhibition.	Smithsonian Institution (202) 633-5330 http://www.asianpacificheritage.gov/index.html	May 1- May 31st Smithsonian, Freer and Sackler Galleries